

The LID Picture and How to Make it Happen

Wednesday, October 22, 2003

SC Archives & History Center, Columbia

Agenda

8:30 – 9:00	Sign-in
9:00 – 9:10	Welcome Lewis Shaw, Deputy Commissioner, EQC, SC DHEC
9:10 – 9:45	Limitations of Conventional Stormwater Management Neil Weinstein, Executive Director, Low Impact Development Center, MD
9:45 – 10:30	Overview of LID Philosophy, Principles and Practices Larry Coffman, Associate Director, Department of Environmental Resources, Prince George's County, MD
10:30 – 10:45	Break Courtesy of the SC Soil and Water Conservation Society
10:45 – 11:30	LID Site Design and Management Practices Neil Weinstein
11:30 – 12:30	Economic and Environmental Benefits of LID for Urban Retrofits Larry Coffman
12:30 – 1:15	Lunch Wachovia Room
1:15 – 2:15	South Carolina Design Approaches: New Development and Urban Retrofit Moderator: Chester Sansbury John R. Thomas, Edward Pinckney/Associates, Ltd., Bluffton Kenneth B. Simmons Jr., Kenneth B. Simmons Associates, Columbia
2:15 – 2:30	Break Courtesy of Upstate Forever
2:30 – 3:00	South Carolina Design Approaches: New Development and Urban Retrofit Continued Jeff Randolph, The Randolph Group, Greenville
3:00 – 3:45	Making LID Happen Locally, A Panel Discussion Moderator: Chester Sansbury Panelist: Laura Bailey, Town of Bluffton; Larry Coffman; Dr. Jim London, Clemson University; Jeff Randolph; Kenneth B. Simmons Jr.; John R. Thomas; Neil Weinstein
3:45 – 4:00	Wrap-up and adjourn

Conference Host: Jim Wilson, NRCS

The Nuts and Bolts of Low Impact Development

Thursday, October 23, 2003

SC Archives & History Center, Columbia

Agenda

- |               |  |
|---------------|--|
| 8:30 – 9:00   | Sign-in   |
| 9:00 – 9:10   | WelcomeDr. Bruce Coull, Dean, USC School of the Environment   |
| 9:10 – 9:45   | Review of LID Principles and ObjectivesLarry Coffman, Associate Director, Department of Environmental Resources, Prince George's County, MD   |
| 9:45 – 11:00  | The LID Toolbox (Hydrological Analysis, Site Planning, IMP Technologies)Neil Weinstein, Executive Director, Low Impact Development Center, MD   |
| 11:00 – 11:15 | Break   |
| 11:15 – 12:00 | Incorporating LID into Existing Plans and GuidelinesLarry CoffmanA South Carolina Example , Randolph Stewart, R. Stewart Design, LLC   |
| 12:00 – 12:45 | LunchWachovia Room  |
| 12:45 – 2:15  | Institutional Aspects of LID (Construction and Maintenance Issues)Neil Weinstein and Larry CoffmanA South Carolina Example , John R. Thomas, Edward Pinckney/ Associates, Ltd. |
| 2:15 – 2:30   | Break   |
| 2:30 – 3:45   | Residential Design ProblemNeil WeinsteinIncludes Q & A Session  |
| 3:45 – 4:00   | Wrap-up and adjourn   |

Conference Host: Cal Sawyer, Clemson University

---

Conference Sponsors

SC Department of Health and Environmental Control
Bureau of Water, OCRM

SC Soil and Water
Conservation Society

Upstate Forever

SC Department of Natural Resources

SC Sea Grant Consortium

USC School of the Environment

SC Sustainable
Universities Initiative

Clemson University

USDA-Natural Resources
Conservation Service